Five CPAs From Elko & Associates Ltd Appointed to National Accounting Association Committee

Ed Doran, director of the tax department at Elko & Associates Ltd, a firm based out of Media has been selected to serve as a member of PKF North American Network's Tax Committee for 2010. Another director, Colleen Cooke-Varallo also has been appointed to the PKF task force, Women Into Leadership Task Force. Kelly Fisher, the international tax manager at Elko has been selected to serve on the PKF NAN International Business Development Committee for the upcoming year. In addition, Robert Morlock also a director at the Firm has been selected for the Network's Closely Held/Family Business Committee in 2010. Veronica Plousis, also a director at Elko & Associates Ltd is serving as a member of PKF North American Network's Employee Benefit Plans Committee for the current and upcoming year.

PKF North American Network is a membership association comprised of 86 independent accounting and consulting firms in North America that are dedicated to serving middle-market businesses and individual clients.

The members of each of these committees are leaders in their field, with proven track records providing service and solutions to clients. These leaders are chosen based on their depth of knowledge and experience.

"As a member of the Employee Benefit Plans Committee, I have the opportunity to gain valuable industry information, such as benchmarking data, best practices and resources, while also learning from key insights of other professionals who, like me, work very closely with their clients," said Plousis.

Doran expressed, "The resources, relationships, training and strategic alliances available through PKF North American Network help us to assist our clients as they face the challenges and changes inherent in the industry."

Thanks to an affiliation with PKF International Ltd., members of our association also have access to professionals at about 146 additional firms around the world, which empowers us to provide seamless service to clients with business dealings and other interests abroad.
