

Sandra Lutz Named President of the Board of Directors of Family Support Line

Sandra Lutz, CPA, Director in the Media office of Elko & Associates Ltd, was recently named President of the board of Directors of Family Support Line, a nonprofit organization dedicated to the prevention, treatment and professional training in the field of child sexual abuse.

Lutz has been involved with Family Support Line since 2004 and, prior to becoming president, served as the organization's treasurer for four years. She succeeds Ed Goss, administrative director of the Bryn Mawr Hospital Health Center, as FSL board president.

Lutz, who joined Elko & Associates in 1998, works primarily with nonprofit organizations and municipal authorities. Elko & Associates Ltd is a public accounting firm with offices in both Delaware and Montgomery counties. Aside from basic tax and accounting, Elko offers business valuations, employee benefit plan audits, international accounting services, succession planning, business consulting and much more. For more information, visit www.elkocpa.com.

"It has been a privilege working with such an outstanding organization as Family Support Line, and I am thrilled to take on this new role. I am grateful for the opportunity to help Family Support Line continue to grow and benefit our community," Lutz says.